Week 2: Thou Shalt Not Be A Jerk

Pastor Eugene Cho

Pastor Eugene Cho's book, "Thou Shalt Not Be A Jerk", examines the intersection of faith and politics and why that intersection is so important. His sermon discusses how we, as Christians, can engage politics while still loving our neighbors and loving God.

Read Matthew 5:1-10.

How do you define the word POLITICS? What negative or positive connotations do you associate with the word POLITICS?

There are three types of groups within the church related to politics: those who have disengaged, those who are overly obsessed, and those who are attempting to be engaged while maintaining their integrity. Which group do you most identify with currently?

Why do politics matter (to Christians/the Church)?

What is Cultural Christianity and how does it differ from being a Disciple of Christ?

What personal changes can you make in your life so that you are not a "Jerk for Jesus"?

How will you engage politics while loving your neighbors and loving God?
